

BAM! Kick Up Your Readers' Advisory Skills for Kids and Teens

Websites to get you kicking up your readers' advisory skills for kids.

Children's Book Council

Provides many free reading lists aimed at kids. Includes "Hot off the Press", poetry, graphic novels, as well as author and illustrator information. <http://www.cbcbooks.org/>

Children's Books from Barnes & Noble

Search for bestsellers, new releases, coming-soon, bargain books, baby/preschool, ages 4-6, ages 9-12, subjects, favorite series, featured authors, special collections, and awards. <http://www.barnesandnoble.com/subjects/children/>

Good Reading at KidsPoint.org

A website from the Central Rappahannock Regional Library in Fredericksburg, VA. http://www.kidspoint.org/good_reading/

Kids' Booklists

Lists for book ideas from the Morton Grove Public Library. <http://www.webrary.org/kids/jbibmenu.html>

Kidsreads.com

Includes a free newsletter, featured authors, contests, books into movies, series books, cool new books, new in paperback, reviews, reading lists, and good books for boys. <http://www.kidsreads.com/>

sidekicks

A website reviewing graphic novels for kids. <http://www.noflyingnotights.com/sidekicks/index.html>

Compiled by Diane Cary and Marcia Stepanek for VIP Conference May 9, 2008

Homosassa Public Library 352-628-5626

diane.cary@citruslibraries.org / marcia.stepanek@citruslibraries.org